

Got Rid of My Corns With Magic "Gets-It"

Simplest Corn Cure in the World—No Pain, No Fuss—New, Sure Way

When corns make you almost "die with your boots on," when you've soaked them and picked them and sliced them, when corn-welling salves, and tapes, bandages, and plasters that make corns pop-eyed have only made your corns grow faster, just hold your heart a moment and figure this: Put two drops of "Gets-It" on the corn. It dries at once. You can put your shoe and stocking on right over it. The corn is doomed. It makes the corn come off clear and clean. It's the new, easy way. Nothing to stick or press on the corn. You can wear smaller shoes. You'll be a joy-walker. No pain, no trouble, accept no substitutes. "Gets-It" is sold by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Barre and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by F. G. Russell. —Adv.

BARRE DRUGGISTS PLEASE CUSTOMERS

Cummings & Lewis, druggists, 54 North Main street, report customers greatly pleased with the QUICK action of simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika. This simple remedy drains the old foul matter from the bowels so THOROUGHLY that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adler-ika never grips and the INSTANT action is surprising. —Adv.

MONTPELIER CHORAL SOCIETY.

Chorus of 200 Members Were Present at Last Rehearsal.

The largest attendance thus far this season was a feature of Tuesday night's rehearsal, 200 members being present. The evening was spent upon "Creation" and "Swan and Skylark." Miss Eleanor P. Sands and Mrs. F. J. Tabor singing the soprano solos.

Mr. Coffin announced that he had secured two additional soloists, Mme. Anita Rio, soprano of New York, and Katherine Ricker, contralto of Boston.

Mme. Rio is known as the American concert soprano, having appeared at all the leading concerts in America on programs with Caruso, Amato and Bonci, and also in Europe, having been engaged in Italy when the war broke out.

Mr. Coffin stated that she was a real star and by far the greatest soprano ever appearing here and one who is in great demand with all leading musical organizations. She will appear one night, May 25.

Miss Katherine Ricker is the leading contralto soloist of the Central Congregational church, Boston, and has appeared at all leading concerts in Massachusetts and at the leading Maine festivals. She will sing the contralto solos in the "Swan and Skylark" on May 25.

President Sibley announced that he had secured $4,400 for the guarantee fund for the festival, the largest sum in the history of the society. He said that it was a source of gratification to know that the society was becoming a county organization (which was its real purpose) as evidenced by the increasing membership of those living outside of Montpelier.

Mme Marie Sundelius, who sang last year has signed a contract with the Metropolitan Opera company.

Senate Demands Reports of General Board and of Admiral Fiske

SENATOR LODGE
BEHIND ACTION

Both Documents Are Said to Plead for a More Efficient Navy

Washington, D. C., April 13.—Secretary Daniels yesterday was directed by unanimous vote of the Senate to make public two hitherto suppressed documents—one the report of the general board on August 3, 1914, and one by Admiral Fiske of November 9, 1914. The resolution directing the report was introduced by Senator Lodge.

Lodge said the general board report was a series of advice on the state of the navy and recommendations for bringing about a "condition of preparedness" and that Fiske's report was a warning as to the unprepared condition of the navy while he was Daniels' senior adviser.

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Goodwin on Maple street, when their only daughter, Mildred Goodwin, was united in marriage to Derward C. Wilmot, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilmot of Bethel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Homer White, who used the single ring service of the Episcopal church. The families of the contracting parties only were present. The bride was gowned in white lace over white satin, and she was attended by the groom's sister, Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, and the groom was accompanied by Fred Goodwin, the brother of the bride. The bride's going-away suit was of blue, with hat to match. Following the ceremony, there was a lunch served, and the couple left on the night train for Barre, where they are to reside, and where the groom has recently purchased a business. They went at once to the home which had been previously prepared for them and will at once go to housekeeping. The bride has lived in town since her childhood, was graduated from the Randolph high school and from the teacher training course, and since leaving school has been a successful teacher in Bethel, Sharon, and Vergennes, where she was employed as a teacher in the industrial school, and at Bristol, where she taught this winter. During her residence here she has gained many friends, who will wish for her much happiness in her new relation. Many beautiful gifts of china, silver and linen were given the bride, in testimony of the esteem in which she is held. Mrs. W. W. Wilmot, who came from Bethel for the wedding, left for her home on Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ketchum went to Gayville on Wednesday to remain for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ketchum.

Miss Minnie Emerson of Boston and her sister, Mrs. Simpson of Campton, N. H., who have been in town to see their father, E. M. Emerson, who is in a serious condition, went to their home on Wednesday, leaving him in about the same condition.

A son was born last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard, who live on Maple street.

The Parent-Teacher association meeting was attended on Tuesday night by about 75 people, who enjoyed the music by the high school orchestra, and the address of Supt. Hunter of Northfield, who took for his topic, "Five Factors in Education."

Nearly 200 wild geese passed over this place on their way north Tuesday afternoon. There were two flocks of them.

Douglas Blackadar had a telephone installed in his home recently.

Carl Dugan and Walter Abbott each entertained parties at their sugar camps Tuesday afternoon.

M. E. Beckley of Groton was a business visitor in this place Monday.

Misses Myrtle and Meaurio Chamberlain of Fitchburg were recent guests at Carl Dugan's.

Supper will be served at the Odd Fellows' dance hall Friday evening, April 14, from 5 to 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the reading room.—adv.

Association.
A few days after a farmer had sold a pig to a neighbor he chanced to pass his place and saw the neighbor's little boy sitting on the edge of the pig pen watching its new occupant.

"How d'ye do, Johnny?" said he.

"How's your pig to-day?"

"Oh, pretty well, thank you," replied the boy. "How's all your folks?"

"Harper's."

Mistress—Goodness, Bridget, where is our telephone?

Bridget—Mrs. Jones sent over, mum, asking for the use of it, and I sent it over, but I had the devil's own time getting it off the wall, mum.—Toledo Blade.

CURRENT COMMENT

Mr. Stone's Successor.

Prof. Milo B. Hillegas of Columbia university, has been elected, and has accepted, to succeed Hon. Mason S. Stone as Vermont's commissioner of education.

Mr. Stone retires after several years of faithful service during which the public school system of the state has been wonderfully improved.

Mr. Hillegas became acquainted with the school problems of the state through his work in connection with the Carnegie foundation report and the survey of our school conditions as embodied in the report of the special commission two years ago.

The new commissioner ought to be able to take the Vermont school problem when Mr. Stone leaves it and carry it on to a successful issue.—St. Johnsbury Republican.

One Short of Pacifist.

The newly appointed secretary of war, Newton D. Baker, may have had leanings toward disarmament two years ago. He may hold similar views now. But the question, in looking up the man's fitness for his new post, is whether he has the intelligence to place a present need before a moral theory. We think he has, if his record may be used in gauging his abilities.

Baker is no fool, he has been a successful member of the Ohio bar, the mayor of the thriving city of Cleveland, and a better-than-ordinary politician.

All of us at heart favor disarmament—that is, we believe the world would be blessed if every ship and every gun were thrown on the scrap pile and men began to live in something like harmony. But those of us who study the histories of nations and of the human emotions don't expect disarmament for some time yet. We want to be prepared to meet any possible enemy on equal ground.

Baker, most likely, is a pacifist of the peace-if-possible-war-if-necessary variety. That won't hurt Baker and it won't hurt the country.—Boston Journal.

The State Auditorship.

The decision of State Auditor Graham not to be a candidate for re-election makes it necessary to look for a new man to fill this important position. The probability of such a vacancy occurring has already led to the starting of booms for persons politically ambitious and the names of several people in Montpelier are frequently mentioned as "next" for the auditor's chair. It is proper, however, to consider the requirements of a good auditor before pledging support to any person, mentioned or unmentioned.

A good state auditor should be able to devote practically all of his time to the work of the office. He should be a man equipped with the quality of order, schooled in systematic handling of accounts, able to dispose rapidly of petty details and prepared to meet and decide quickly the larger problems always appearing. He must be honest, courageous enough to say no when improprieties are suggested and should be capable of enforcing correct principles in an agreeable way. He must be a systematic and persistent worker with an accurate judgment. The man possessing these qualities can serve the state well and economically.

To our mind the man fitted for this work has not been mentioned. We sincerely hope the popularity of any men favorably mentioned will not obscure their lack of orderliness or absence of training for this class of work. Being a "good politician" is no desirable qualification for this position. Being a lawyer is not necessary. In fact we do not wish to mind any lawyer well enough trained in this line of work to make him the pre-eminent proper man. We feel that some trained accountant who has had good training in business or financial matters would be more desirable than a good lawyer, much more so than any lawyer who has not won his spurs in his profession. We understand that Mr. Hanley will not be a candidate for the position, but are confident some one can be found who will measure up to the specifications for the job. We feel that nominations for the state auditorship are still in order and hope they will be made.—St. Johnsbury Caledonian.

The Better Way.

Charles M. Schwab, congratulated in Pittsburgh on a large order contract which he had just received from one of the warring nations, said:

"Some people call it luck, but they are mistaken. Whatever success I have is due to hard work and not to luck."

"I remember a New York business man who crossed the ocean with me one winter when the whole country was suffering from hard times."

"And you, Mr. Schwab, the New Yorker said, 'are like the rest of us, I suppose, hoping for better things?'"

"No, my friend, I am not. 'No, I am not hoping for better things. I've got my sleeves rolled up and I'm working for them.'—Philadelphia Bulletin.

It's Wonderful How Resinol Stops Itching

To those who have endured for years the itching torments of eczema or other skin eruptions, the relief that the first use of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap usually gives is incredible. After all the suffering they have endured and all the useless treatments they have spent good money for, they cannot believe anything so simple, mild and inexpensive can stop the itching and burning INSTANTLY! And they find it still more wonderful that the improvement is permanent and that Resinol really drives away the cause of the trouble in a very short time. Perhaps there is a pleasant surprise like this in store for you. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

A Good Soap For Baby Skin

A good baby soap should contain soothing, healing properties to prevent the rashes and chafes to which babies are liable. That is why so many physicians recommend Resinol Soap.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Marguerite Clark Stars in "Still Waters" at Park Theatre Friday.

Though there have been many songs extolling life on the ocean wave, and innumerable plays that picture the deeds and misdeeds of the socially elect, life on our inland waterways has seldom aroused the interest of the playwright. Hence, "Still Waters," the story of canal-boat life and of the circus, in which Marguerite Clark is featured by the Famous Players Film company on the Paramount program at the Park Friday this week, will prove of special interest.—adv.
